

Criminalizing Economies. Law, Distribution, and the Transformation of the Maritime World (1200–1600)

Organized by Thomas Heebøll-Holm, Philipp Höhn and Gregor Rohmann

Thursday, 22 February

13:30 Welcome (Iwo Amelung)

13:45 Introduction

1. The Atlantic I (Moderation Gregor Rohmann)

14:00 Thomas Heebøll-Holm (Odense): Prizes, Privateers, and Market in 14th Century England and France

14:45 Bart Lambert (York): Navigating Insecurity: The Costs and Benefits of the Privateering Economy in Fifteenth-Century Bruges Coffee Break

15:30 Flavio Miranda (Lisbon/Porto), Amândio Barros (Porto): ‘Make Good Peace or Total War.’ Trade, Piracy and the Construction of Portugal’s Maritime State in the Later Middle Ages (1350-1550)

16:15 Coffee

2. The Atlantic II (Moderation Georg Christ)

16:45 Roberto José Gonzalez Zalacain (Madrid): Business on the Last Frontier: Licit and Illicit Economic Issues in the Conquest and Colonization of the Canary Islands (14th-16th Centuries)

17:30 Tobias Daniels (Rom): Popes and Pirates: Paul Beneke and the Portinari-Triptych

18:15 Discussion of Panels 1 and 2

19:30 Dinner

Friday, 23 February

3. The Baltic and North Sea I (Moderation Thomas Heebøll-Hom)

- 09:00 Philipp Höhn (Frankfurt am Main): Merchant Spaces, Pirate Places? Distribution, Legal Pluralism, and the Construction of Maritime Deviance in the Baltic (14th-16th Centuries)
- 09:45 Gregor Rohmann (Göttingen/Frankfurt am Main): The Emperor, the Pope, and the "Pirates". How Hamburg gained Control over the Elbe River, 1359-1387
- 10:30 Frederik Vognsen Hansen (Århus): Conceptualizing 'Piracy' in Late Medieval Denmark
- 11:00 Coffee
- 11:45 Beata Mozejko (Gdańsk): From the Baltic to the North Sea. The Great Caravel "Peter von Danzig" under the Command of Berndt Pawesta, Councilor of Gdańsk
- 12:30 Lunch

4. The Baltic and North Sea II (Moderation Philipp Höhn)

- 14:00 Alexander Krey (Frankfurt am Main): Henning Putbus and Wrecking. A Study in the Interaction and Transformation of Resource Regimes
- 14:45 Michael Meichsner (Greifswald): Islands and Maritime Conflicts – The Example of Gotland around 1500
- 15:30 Kilian Baur (Eichstätt): Schal men den clageren beyden syden recht behelpen – King, Councils, Burghers, and the Juridical Consequences of War
- 16:15 Coffee
- 16:45 Discussion of Panels 3 and 4

5. The Mediterranean I (Moderation Emily Sohmer Tai)

- 17:15 Christoph Dartmann (Hamburg): Naval Warfare in Communal Genoa
- 18:00 Georg Christ (Manchester): Pirates and the Venetian Coast Guard/Navy in the 14th Century
- 19:30 Dinner

Saturday, 24 February

6. The Mediterranean II (Moderation Christoph Dartmann)

- 09:00 Emily Sohmer Tai (New York): Pirates on the Coast. Littoral Expansion and Maritime Predation in Liguria and Dalmatia, 1300-1500
- 09:45 Marie Kelleher (Long Beach): The Family Business: The Smugglers, Captains, and Councilors of Barcelona's Marquet Family
- 10:30 Mike Carr (Edinburgh): Policing the Sea. Enforcing the Papal Embargo on Trade with "Infidels"
- 11:15 Coffee-Break
- 11:45 Discussion of Panels 5 and 6
- 12:30 Lunch
- 14:00 Albrecht Cordes/Nicolas Jaspert: Comments and Discussion
- 15:00 End
- 15:30 Guided Tour through Frankfurt (Alexander Krey)